

International STUDENTS

UF OFFICE FOR STUDENT FINANCIAL AFFAIRS

International students may or may not be eligible for federal, state, or institutional need-based aid programs at the University of Florida (UF), depending upon their residency status, as well as their financial need. International students should follow normal application procedures for financial aid at UF through the Office for Student Financial Affairs (SFA), if they are

- U. S. citizens, or
- U. S. nationals (includes natives of American Samoa or Swain's Island).

Students who are not in one of these categories, but who are

- U. S. permanent residents with an Alien Registration Receipt Card (I-551);
- Conditional permanent residents (I-155C); or
- Eligible noncitizens with an Arrival-Departure Record (I-94) from the U. S. Department of Homeland Security showing one of the following designations: "Refugee," "Asylum Granted," "Parolee," or "Cuban-Haitian Entrant" should follow normal application procedures for financial aid at UF, but must also provide SFA with a copy of their Alien Registration Receipt Card or Arrival or Departure Record to verify their citizenship status.

Students in the U. S. on an F1 or F2 student visa only or on a J1 or J2 exchange visitor visa only, or on a G-series visa (pertaining to international organizations) are not eligible to receive need-based aid administered by SFA. These students, however, may be eligible for private or college-awarded scholarships administered by agencies other than our office.

To access information on private funding sources, students can link to free scholarship search services such as fastWEB and SRN Express through the SFA Web page (<http://www.sfa.ufl.edu>). These scholarship searches provide students with listings of scholarships, fellowships, grants, loans, and other awards tailored to their qualifications.

Select "Scholarship Finder/Cafe" on the SFA site to search for all scholarships available at UF. A complete list of UF college-awarded scholarships is also available in the Gator Aid Handbook available at SFA in S-107 Criser Hall.

Students interested in obtaining information about graduate assistantships or fellowships should contact the Graduate School at <http://gradschool.rgp.ufl.edu> or the Dean's office of the department or college through which they are planning to enroll.

UF's International Center may also be able to provide information on other programs that are available to international students. The address is:
