Need money for college?

Each year, Federal Student Aid provides more than 150 billion dollars in grants, loans, and work-study funds, making a college education possible for everyone.

Completing the FAFSA (or the “Free Application for Federal Student Aid”) is the first step toward getting financial aid for college or career school.

It’s important that every college-bound student complete the FAFSA as soon as possible.

Learn more through your guidance counselor or at www.fafsa.gov.

Need money for college?

Here is a video on applying for financial aid from the University of Florida. Remember to apply for financial aid with the FAFSA at www.fafsa.gov as soon as possible. Some financial aid is awarded first-come, first-served, so apply early for the most and best financial aid.

View video at: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C3OKLPjmun0

Getting ready for college?

Completing the FAFSA (or the “Free Application for Federal Student Aid”) is the first step toward getting financial aid for college or career school.

Apply now at www.fafsa.gov. Some financial aid is awarded first-come, first-served, so remember to apply early for the most and best financial aid.