Beyond the Money

Student Financial Affairs is, at its heart, a service organization. Besides disbursing financial aid monies, SFA strives also to assist and educate students—giving them the information, resources, and understanding necessary to become fiscally responsible and successful.

SFA offers financial aid advising services throughout the year, comprehensive financial aid publications, and technical support including an interactive website and student aid file information through UF’s ISIS (Integrated Student Information System) website at www.ISIS.ufl.edu.

Paying for your education at the University of Florida
A guide for out-of-state students and families
Financial aid is defined as money provided to students and their families as either "gift aid" or "self-help" to assist in paying college costs. "Gift aid," as the name implies, is free money such as scholarships and grants, which students do not have to repay. "Self-help" programs include loans and employment and are so named because students must repay loans and work for money awarded through employment programs. Awards to students consist of grants, loans, and employment— singly or in combination.

Financial Aid Deadlines

Although you must be accepted for enrollment at UF before you are considered for financial aid, you should apply for aid before being admitted. Complete the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) at fafsa.ed.gov. You can file a FAFSA as early as January 1 each year. UF’s “On-Time” deadline to receive the results of your FAFSA from the federal processor is March 15. Apply well before March 15 to ensure that the federal processor has time to analyze and send the results of your FAFSA to our office.

When UF receives your application information from the federal processor and eligibility. Students who complete a FAFSA and list UF as a “college of choice” are considered for all aid programs administered by SFA. One or more of the four types of aid (grants, scholarships, part-time employment, loans) are usually offered to eligible students to make up their financial aid package.

By early April, admitted freshmen who have filed the FAFSA will receive an official award notice via U.S. mail and online at isis.ufl.edu. The Notification of Financial Award states the terms and conditions of aid programs awarded to you. Read it carefully, and follow any instructions that pertain to you.

How Need is Determined

The financial information you and your family provide on your FAFSA is used to determine your expected family contribution or EFC—how much you and your family are expected to contribute toward your educational expenses once your EFC has been determined, the financial aid office will calculate your financial need. Financial need is the cost of attendance minus your EFC.

Your Financial Aid Award

When UF receives your application information from the federal processor and you have been admitted to UF, SFA will award you an aid package based on your eligibility. Scholarships

Scholarships are awarded by various organizations such as the university, the state, individual colleges and departments, and private entities. UF’s Scholarship Search Engine is a searchable database of both college-awarded and private scholarships. www.sfa.ufl.edu/search

There are a limited number of Out of State Tuition Scholarships available. Recipients are selected from admitted freshmen who are non-Florida residents for tuition purposes. There is not a separate application for these scholarships, as all admitted students who apply by the November 1 freshman admission priority deadline are considered eligible. The recipients are selected by a committee each spring and will be notified via e-mail and U.S. mail by the end of March. Contact the scholarship coordinator in the Office of Admissions, freshman@admissions.ufl.edu or (352) 392-1365 for more information.

How to Apply for Financial Aid

Complete a Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) on or after January 1. Apply each year—financial aid is not renewed automatically.

- Go to FAFSA on the Web at www.fafsa.ed.gov.
- Request a federal PIN, using www.pin.ed.gov. Follow the instructions on the site.
- List “University of Florida” and the UF Federal School Code (001535) as a school choice in the “School Selection” section.
- Sign your FAFSA. Students can sign the FAFSA electronically using their federal PIN. Parents of dependent students can also sign electronically but must either request their own PIN or print, sign, and mail the signature page to the processor.
- If you or your parents haven’t filed federal income tax returns for the previous year when it is time to apply for aid, report “estimated” income information on your FAFSA. Consider using the “Income Estimator” option as you’re completing the FAFSA. Once you’ve filed your taxes, you must correct your FAFSA if the estimate differs from your actual income.
- After successfully submitting your application, print and keep the confirmation page. This page contains your confirmation number and other important information. Remember, you can return to make corrections online at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

How Need is Determined

The financial information you and your family provide on your FAFSA is used to determine your expected family contribution or EFC—how much you and your family are expected to contribute toward your educational expenses.
