THE FEDERAL WORK-STUDY PROGRAM (FWS)

The Federal Work-Study (FWS) Program is a federally funded program administered by the Office of Student Financial Aid and Scholarships. This program provides part-time employment opportunities for university students in service-type agencies or organizations in the community.

HOW THE WORK-STUDY PROGRAM CAN BENEFIT YOU

- Reduces organization expenses.
 - FWS will cover 75% of the student's earnings for up to 20 hours a week, paid at least Florida's minimum wage.
- Enables access to a talented and motivated workforce.
- Assistance in posting and advertising jobs through our jobs.ufl.edu database.
- Increase your workforce to better serve your community.
- Connects students with community partners to establish meaningful relationships and networking opportunities.

HOW THE FWS PROGRAM BENEFITS STUDENTS

- Offers meaningful part-time employment to enrolled students with financial need.
- Helps students develop valuable work skills.
- Prepares students for entering the workforce after graduation.
- Offers employment opportunities that may reflect educational goals and a personal passion.

WE'RE HERE TO HELP YOU EVERY STEP OF THE WAY

Posting a Job

We will assist in creating and posting your available student positions through <https://jobs.ufl.edu>.

Hiring

You will conduct your own interviews with applicants and can count on us to ensure students are eligible for hire.

Onboarding

We collect and process all hiring documentation to complete onboarding through a unique UF process called GatorStart.

Maintaining Employment

We monitor the student's earnings and eligibility to ensure that the student remains eligible for FWS.
